Google

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TO MY BOOKS.

Silent companions of the lonely hour,
Friends who can never alter or forsake,
Who for inconstant roving have no power,
And all neglect, perforce, must calmly take,
Let me return to YOU ; this turmoil ending
Which worldly cares have in my spirit wrought,
And, o'er your old familiar pages bending,
Refresh my mind with many a tranquil thought;
Till, haply meeting there from time to time,
Fancies, the audible echo of my own,
'Twill be like hearing in a foreign clime
My native language spoke in friendly tone,
And with a sort of welcome I shall dwell
On these, my unripe musings, told so well.

CAROLINE NORTON.

INTRODUCTORY.

In this catalogue we have endeavored to list only standard books in steady demand. The titles given represent but a portion of the books carried in our extensive stock. To list all would require a work so large as to be altogether too unwieldy and unserviceable, and it has therefore been the plan to omit the many books on special subjects, and books not in general demand, which, while carried in our stock, are not of the first interest to those for whom this catalogue is intended.

Information not found in this catalogue will be cheerfully and promptly furnished on request, and inquiries regarding prices, editions, etc., will receive our most careful attention. Very often we have at hand circulars and other matter giving full descriptions of books which a customer may be interested in, and these we are always glad of an opportunity to supply.

As our stock of books is probably the largest gathered under one roof anywhere in the world, exclusive of the larger libraries, there is ordinarily no delay in filling any order of average character. Foreign books that we do not carry we import promptly, and out-of-print books that we have not on hand we advertise for, free of charge. Books temporarily out of stock we can usually supply in a week or ten days after receipt of order.

As a personal examination of a book is much more satisfactory than a printed or written description, customers are urged whenever possible to visit our retail store and make their selections at first hand. Patrons from out of town are cordially invited to make the store their head-quarters while in the city. A comfortable reading-room has been provided, where catalogues may be consulted, books examined, letters written, or appointments kept with friends, as may be desired.

For the benefit of those who do not realize the extent of our establishment, we call attention below to the classification of our Retail stock.

Our Library Department is especially equipped for supplying books of all publishers to libraries, and imports books for public libraries free of duty. This department issues a Classified Catalogue of 3,500 Volumes Suitable for a Public Library, proportioned in accordance with approved library methods.

Our Scientific Department carries a large and varied assortment of technical books, works on biology, zoölogy, entomology, chemistry, physics, electricity, botany, geology and mineralogy, architecture and construction, etc. We have in preparation a Scientific Catalogue, of which Section 1—Mines and Mining, Metallurgy and Assaying, Mineralogy and Geology, Prospecting and Petroleum—has already been issued.

Our Departments of Rare and Out-of-Print Books and Fine Bindings are extensive and unrivaled, and are frequently replenished by importations secured by our representative in personal visits to the foreign markets. Catalogues of Imported Second-hand Books, including Fine Copies of the Best Editions, also Rare Books, are issued from time to time.

Our Periodical Department has a large supply of all the leading current magazines, and also receives annual subscriptions for all domestic and foreign periodicals. We have just issued a new and representative list of periodicals, which can be had upon request.

Our selection of Fine Imported Leather Goods, Bronze Goods, etc., also purchased by a personal representative, is not to be surpassed in its variety of choice and beautiful articles.

Our Basement Department contains, besides Children's Books and Games, the largest collection of low-priced books carried anywhere in Chicago or the West, also at all times many books at greatly reduced prices, good books in good binding and paper, of which we have an over-supply, or which are slightly shop-worn. These are distinct bargains, and descriptive lists are printed at intervals, for the benefit of our customers.

In addition to the catalogues named above, we issue the following:

Descriptive List of the Publications of A. C. McClurg & Co.

Catalogue of French books, including works of general literature and school and college text-books.

A List of Books on Athletics and Sports.

Monthly Bulletin of New Books, containing descriptive notes wherever necessary.

Postage or prepaid express charges on books sent out of Chicago are approximately as follows:

16mos (see inside front cover) - - - - six to ten cents.

12mos - - - - - - - - - - twelve to fourteen cents.

8vos - - - - - - - - - - fifteen to twenty-five cents.

It is generally safer to have large books or parcels of books sent by express.

Books are not made for furniture, but nothing else so beautifully furnishes a house. Give us the home furnished with books rather than with furniture. Both if you can, but books at any rate.

The Princess is the wife of a secret diplomatic agent between England and the Viceroy of Egypt, and she and her husband are living at Cairo, where the story opens. Many famous people figure in the story—among them General Gordon and Madame Blavatsky. Finally, loss of fortune brings her and her untitled husband to America, and there the author gives a most amusing and clever account of how a princess adapts herself to plain living and ordinary household experiences.

This will be a monumental, popular, yet scholarly treatment of English Literature, on the one hand scrupulously exact, and on the other attractive and amusing. A consecutive history of English literature will be given in one type, so that this, if the reader desires, can be read alone as a narrative of the evolution of the English style. In a different type a biography of each author will be supplied. From the works of each leading writer at least one characteristic quotation will be made.

The four epochs of American history may be denoted by the dates 1492, 1620, 1788 and 1850. The first is also the world epoch of the Italian Renaissance. The second is the world epoch of the Reformation and its resulting conflicts,—the epoch of the Christian Renaissance. The third is the world epoch of Revolution and of illumination. The fourth is the world epoch of the political reconstruction of Europe, and of the general adoption of modern methods of thought.

There are great stretches of prairie waiting for the plow, huge forests, magnificent waterways, and big towns with fine stores, with great hotels, with electric lights gleaming everywhere
